Modern Art School Summer Classes The summer classes of the Modern Art School of New York City will be held at Provincetown, Mass., from June 7 until September 25. This school, under the direction of Myra Musselman, has received the instantaneous endorsement of every modern artist in New York, because of the fact that its aim is to teach art sense, rather than mere facility in mediums. This endeavour naturally leads the student to appreciate the fine and sincere qualities of the great periods of the past and at the same time opens the way...
