

The Blood Paid the Price

By Tony U S Okwum

Tate Publishing Company, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Life is nothing without the blood of Christ. It s the greatest blood sacrifice. Our eternal life and prosperity was obtained through the blood. The moment the blood came out of His body, humanity was set free from evil. The power of darkness was broken, and prosperity took over the life of men. The power of the blood is the power over darkness, sickness, pain and poverty. Christ gave his blood so we can live forever. Christianity is the summation of the perfect life God created through Christ. It is the most genuine interpretation of fellowship with the spirit of God to create union in the eternal design of God. The Blood Paid the Price reveals the life that God has truly given by the most sacrificial death ever known to humanity--the death of the Cross. The blood of Christ played the most important role in bringing men from death to life. Tony US Okwum provides guidance on the role of the church today and how Christians can make Christ s power known. Discover and embrace...
