Xulon Press, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 196 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Point System: The Game Every Woman Plays-and Loses! is written by the author to help men understand the women in their lives better. However, it also gives women an excellent comprehension of the motivations behind their actions so they can understand themselves and what controls their self-esteem even better. In other words, this book is a must read for everyone! The book is the recounting of an actual conversation between the author and her husband where the author describes female relationships in the form of a competition-the point system. The game analogy helps not only the author s husband, but any reader, understand the women in their lives in a creative, quick and easy to read way. Don t miss this book. It is sure to have everyone talking! Cara Whedbee is a Licensed Marriage Family Therapist in the State of Texas with a Ph.D. in Psychology Christian Counseling and full training in Play Therapy. She has counseled hundreds of families, adults, couples, groups, adolescents and children in her therapy career. Dr. Whedbee is a published author in her field and a freelance magazine writer. She is currently employed as a Writer for Administaff, the nation s leading Professional Employer Organization (PEO).
