Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the Editors: The British financial empire is in big trouble, and that means big trouble for mankind, unless emergency action is taken to put that bankrupt behemoth out of action. In this issue of EIR, we feature in-depth profiles of two of the leading flanks available for achieving that urgent objective, in this crucial month of July. The first is the fight of the so-called vulture funds, backed by the U.S. government and Wall Street, against Argentina (Economics Cover Story). This showdown has profound implications for the whole financial system, as, in effect, the Wall Street/London crowd is demanding the overturning of national sovereignty itself, in its desperate grasp for loot and power. EIR has the inside track on this battle, which goes back to the Argentine debt crisis of the early 1980s, and today includes the potential for the emergence of a new global financial architecture erected around the Eurasian coalition of nations, led by Russia and China. It is a battle that can be won, with the ideas EIR and the LaRouche movement have put...
