Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Radicalism Vindicated: Letter of Senator Drake, of Missouri, to Senator Johnson, of Maryland Hon. Reverdy Johnson: Dear Sir: There has come to me, under your frank, a pamphlet by A Marylander, the comprehensive title of which is given above. Its having so come, and its sentiments and style, led me to ascribe its authorship to you; and in this I am confirmed by information to that effect from a citizen of Baltimore. It is this in part, if not mainly, which impels me to this notice of the document. Common men may write and print what they please, and do little harm; but not so with one of your high position and distinguished reputation. Though cheerfully admitting my inferiority to you in the latter respect, I propose, for the sake of truth and right, an examination and discussion of some positions assumed in this pamphlet, which I consider to involve grave and serious errors of fact and of doctrine. I agree with you in your opening proposition, that no reflecting citizen can be insensible to...
