

Every Nation for Itself: Winners and Losers in a G-Zero World

By Ian Bremmer

Penguin Putnam Inc, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Following the acclaim for The End of the Free Market, Ian Bremmer is back with Every Nation for Itself, now in paperback, where he addresses the next big issue for the shifting world economy. Smart and snappy, provides the most cogent prediction of the how the politics of a post-America world will play out. (New Statesman). What happens when nobody's running the world? The United States is in financial crisis and can't hold onto the reins of the G-20. But China has no interest in international leadership, Europe is trying to save the euro, and emerging powers like Brazil and India are focused on domestic development. No government has the time, resources or political capital needed to take an international lead. The world power structure is about to have a vacancy at the top. Welcome to the G-Zero world, in which no single country has the power to shape a truly global agenda. That means we are about to see 20 years of conflict over economics, finance and climate change. Bestselling author and strategist...
