TABLA DE REMEDIOS HOMEOPÁTICOS

Hispano Europea, 2008. soft. Book Condition: New. El remedio homeopático estimula los procesos de autocuración del organismo, y por lo tanto lo fortalece. Sin embargo, muchos de los medicamentos habituales, como por ejemplo los antibióticos, hacen exactamente lo contrario y se limitan a matar al agente patógeno, con lo que suelen provocar una debilitación del sistema inmunitario. Estas medidas drásticas deberían reservarse para infecciones graves, peligrosas o contagiosas, pero no emplearse para casos banales, que es lo que por desgracia se suele hacer. Resumiendo, podemos decir que la homeopatía se basa en tres conceptos principales: Una sustancia que provoca determinados síntomas en una persona sana puede emplearse para tratar a una persona enferma que manifieste esos mismos síntomas. La potenciación de un remedio homeopático refuerza el efecto curativo de la sustancia e impide posibles efectos secundarios indeseables. La homeopatía no trata solamente la enfermedad sino al enfermo de manera individual y según sus propios síntomas.
